SUMMER PROGRAMME 2024

WHERE CHANGE HAPPENS

With Essex's Language & Linguistics Summer Programme, you'll have the chance to study fascinating undergraduate modules with our expert academics and explore England. For three weeks, you'll call our beautiful Colchester campus home, alongside teaching, excursions and free time. If you're impatient to get out and have an authentic British experience, if you want to see first-hand what it's like to study at a UK university and you want to deepen your understanding of Language and Linguistics – welcome home!

Week 1 & 2: Language and Law

Language is an essential component of human communication, shaping our thoughts, relationships, and cultures. In this module, we will delve into the fascinating field of Language and Linguistics, exploring their various intersections with law.

Join us for a series of engaging lectures, interactive workshops, and thought-provoking debates that will provide you with a comprehensive understanding of the complex relationship between language, including different aspects of its use, and the relationship with law and policy.

You will be offered opportunities to explore the intricate connection between language and law from different perspectives, primarily by tackling the following questions:

- How do language policies and social perceptions of language impact forensic investigations and the pursuit of justice?
- How does the understanding and accurate translation of legal texts contribute to the administration of justice and cross-border communication?

Week 3: Translation, Interpreting and Cultural Mediation

The one-week short course is designed for students to explore use cases of language skills, with topics like localization, consecutive interpreting, and public speaking. Elevate your linguistic prowess and see yourself in action, join us in an immersive learning experience.

This course will include seminars in:

- Localization
- What's inside the interpreter's mind – consecutive interpreting explained
- Colchester Tour with consecutive interpreting practice
- Language in action
- Studio-based public speaking

LEARN OUTSIDE THE CLASSROOM

As well as fascinating modules, you will also have the opportunity to discover first-hand what it is like to live and study in the east of England, with excursions to a variety of historically-packed small traditional towns and the bustling British capital, London.

Excursions can include:

- Welcome barbeque
- Colchester walking tour
- Warner Bros studio tour
- London Day Trip
- Cambridge Day Trip
- Visit to Dedham Vale and Flatford Mill
- Afternoon Tea and more...

ON CAMPUS ACCOMMODATION

The quoted fees also include on-campus accommodation in South Courts. We can offer single, private rooms with ensembles, with shared kitchens and on-site communal laundry rooms.

South Courts is located just a 5-minute walk from the centre of campus where you will find the Library, SU bar, SU Shop, eatery outlets and plenty more. It is also only a 2-minute walk to our gym and other sport facilities located on the edge of the University campus.
